Description: Stop polythene campaign

The National Cadet Corps (NCC) is a vital organization that plays a crucial role in shaping the youth of our nation. Apart from fostering discipline and a sense of patriotism, the NCC also aims to promote awareness about important social issues. To further this objective, a Painting Competition was organized with the intent to raise mass awareness among NCC cadets and the community at large.

Objective as

- The primary goal of the Painting Competition was to encourage NCC cadets to express their thoughts and creativity through art, thereby creating a powerful platform for raising awareness about socially relevant issues.
- Promoting artistic expression and creativity among NCC cadets.
- Generating awareness about pressing social issues.
- Encouraging the community to become more informed and proactive regarding these issues.

The Painting Competition for Mass Awareness in NCC was a successful initiative that combined art, awareness, and community engagement. It demonstrated the potential of artistic expression as a powerful tool for social change. By organizing such events, the NCC continues to foster a sense of social responsibility among the youth and actively contributes to building a better society.
