

Invertis University Hosts Thrilling Invertis Premier League Season-5

- Invertis University proudly showcased its sporting fervour by organizing the highly anticipated event, the "Invertis Premier League (IPL) Season-5." The event, hosted by The Sports Club - Stride, took place from March 12th to March 16th, 2023, at the Cricket Ground. The IPL Season 2 brought together students, faculty, and staff in a thrilling display of cricket matches and interdepartmental competition.

Under the coordination of Mohd Shakeel, the event was meticulously planned and executed to ensure a seamless experience for all participants. The organizing committee's dedication and hard work created an atmosphere of excitement and sportsmanship that will be remembered by all.

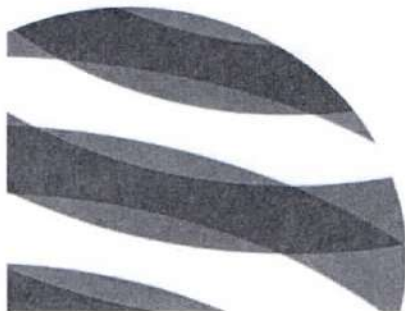

The IPL Season-2 featured an array of cricket matches, showcasing the talent and passion of the participants. Teams representing different departments of the university engaged in highly anticipated matches, where players exhibited their cricketing skills, strategic thinking, and teamwork.

In addition to the cricket matches, the interdepartmental matches added an extra layer of excitement to the event. Participants from various departments engaged in spirited matches, igniting healthy competition and encouraging collaboration. The matches served as a platform for students from different disciplines to bond and showcase their sporting abilities.

Invertis University's Invertis Premier League Season 2 demonstrated the institution's commitment to promoting sportsmanship, teamwork, and healthy competition among its students, faculty, and staff.
