As per the recommendation of the Course Review Committee (CRC) and the subsequent discussion held by the Programme Review Committee (PRC), a meeting of the Board of Studies (BOS) was held. The following points emerged from the discussion:

- 1. The minutes of the IV BOS meeting were read out and the compliance report was presented to the Board.
- 2. It was decided to make teaching more practical-centric, in line with the recommendations of the CRC and PRC. Faculty members were asked to design their knowledge-imparting methods in such a way that they go beyond the lecture method. The BOS approved this decision.
- 3. In accordance with the CRC and PRC's recommendations, the practicum syllabus for paper BMC151 was changed to include personality development and communication skills-based activities. The practicum syllabus for paper BMC152 was also changed to include more recreational activities and events. The BOS approved these changes.
- 4. The BOS approved the CRC and PRC's recommendation to update the practicum syllabus for paper BMC251 in line with new media. The updated syllabus will include advanced ICTenabled learning.
- 5. The BOS approved the CRC and PRC's recommendation to update the practicum syllabuses for papers BMC351 and BMC352.
- 6. The BOS approved the CRC and PRC's recommendation to update the practicum syllabuses for papers BMC451 and BMC452.
- 7. The BOS approved the CRC and PRC's recommendation to update the practicum syllabuses for papers BMC551 and BMC552.
- 8. The BOS approved the CRC and PRC's recommendation to update the practicum syllabus for paper BMC651.
- 9. All changes made by the BOS will be effective from the academic session 2021-2022.
