

Invertis University's Department of Engineering Hosts Stellar "Novato Fiesta" Freshers' Party

Invertis University, Bareilly's Department of Engineering, welcomed the new academic year with the "Novato Fiesta" on August 29, 2018, held at Seminar Hall 1. The event, organized by the university, encompassed a vibrant freshers' party coupled with engaging talent competitions.

"Novato Fiesta" was a dynamic platform for incoming students to showcase their diverse talents, fostering a welcoming and inclusive atmosphere within the department. The event resonated with enthusiasm as freshers participated zealously in various talent competitions, including singing, dancing, and other unique showcases.

The Department of Engineering's initiative highlighted the university's commitment to a holistic student experience, emphasizing community building and talent recognition right from the start. The event's success lay in its ability to instill a sense of belonging among new students and create an environment conducive to personal growth and camaraderie.
