Description:

In the academic year 2018-19, Invertis University's Department of Management welcomed new students with a vibrant and spirited event called "Rise and Shine" on August 30, 2018, held at Seminar Hall 1. The event, crafted as a freshers' party, aimed to introduce incoming students to the department and university community in an engaging and welcoming manner.

"Rise and Shine" exuded energy and enthusiasm as new students were warmly welcomed into the university fold. The event offered an array of activities designed to foster camaraderie and a sense of belonging among the freshers. It served as an opportunity for them to mingle, interact with faculty members, and get acquainted with their peers.

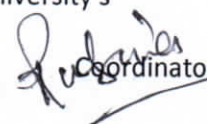

Seminar Hall 1 buzzed with excitement as the event unfolded, with music, games, and various interactive sessions. The event organizers ensured a vibrant atmosphere by including ice-breaking activities, talent showcases, and opportunities for students to share their aspirations and experiences.

The success of "Rise and Shine" lay in its ability to create an inclusive environment where new students felt embraced by the university community. It was not just a party but a gateway for students to forge new friendships, establish connections, and embark on their academic journey with a positive and enthusiastic mindset.

The Department of Management's effort in organizing the "Rise and Shine" freshers' party underscored the university's commitment to providing a holistic student experience. By initiating an event focused on social integration and fostering a welcoming atmosphere, the department laid the foundation for an engaging and supportive academic year.

"Rise and Shine" was not merely a celebration; it was a catalyst for new beginnings and a precursor to the vibrant community that thrives within the Department of Management at Invertis University.

The event left a lasting impression, setting the stage for a year filled with academic growth, personal development, and meaningful connections for the incoming students within the university's Management Department.
