

Name of the Cell/Department: The Cultural Club-Rock –on

Academic year: 2018-19

Name of the program: Theatre Workshop

Date: 10-8-2018

Venue: Auditorium

Description:

In the academic year 2018-19, the Cultural Club "Rock On" at Invertis University, Bareilly, organized an enriching Theatre Workshop on August 10, 2018, held at the esteemed Auditorium. The event was a testament to the club's commitment to nurturing artistic talents and promoting cultural enrichment within the university.

The Theatre Workshop was an engaging platform that aimed to explore the nuances of dramatic arts. Participants immersed themselves in various aspects of theater, including acting techniques, stage presence, script analysis, and character development. Led by seasoned professionals, the workshop encouraged students to unleash their creativity and delve into the realm of theatrical expression.

The Auditorium transformed into a hub of creativity and learning, echoing with the passion and enthusiasm of the participants. Through interactive sessions and practical demonstrations, attendees gained insights into the art of storytelling, honing their acting skills, and understanding the intricacies of theatrical production.

The success of the Theatre Workshop lay in its ability to inspire and empower participants to embrace the art of theater. It not only provided a platform for students to explore their talents but also fostered teamwork, creativity, and self-expression.

The Cultural Club "Rock On," in organizing this workshop, demonstrated its dedication to providing holistic and diverse cultural experiences to the university community. The event contributed significantly to the cultural vibrancy of the campus, encouraging students to appreciate and engage with the performing arts.

The Theatre Workshop was not just an event; it was a catalyst for fostering a deeper appreciation for theater and its impact on personal growth and expression. Participants left the workshop with newfound knowledge, enthusiasm, and a deeper understanding of the dramatic arts.

This initiative by the Cultural Club "Rock On" exemplifies Invertis University's commitment to providing platforms for students to explore and excel in diverse cultural domains, further enriching the academic and cultural landscape of the institution.

Coordinator

Registrar
Invertis University
Bareilly