

Aswaaran: Athletic Meet Showcases Sportsmanship at Invertis University

Bareilly, Uttar Pradesh - August 29, 2019

Invertis University proudly hosted "Aswaaran: Athletic Meet," a spirited showcase of sportsmanship and athleticism organized by its esteemed Sports Club, Stride. The event took place on August 29, 2019, and witnessed enthusiastic participation from students across various disciplines, faculty, and staff.

The Athletic Meet was inaugurated in the presence of eminent dignitaries, including the District Magistrate, the Vice-Chancellor, and other esteemed members of the university. The event kickstarted with a ceremonial lamp lighting and the singing of the national anthem, symbolizing the commencement of this spirited athletic event.

Athletes competed fiercely in a variety of track and field events, encompassing sprints, long jump, shot put, and relay races. The competitions were marked by exemplary sportsmanship, determination, and healthy rivalry among the participants.

Aswaaran succeeded in promoting a culture of fitness, teamwork, and camaraderie within the university community, echoing Invertis University's commitment to holistic development through sports.
