Description:

Invertis University Bareilly, through its Cultural Club - Rock On, hosted "Malhar," an Inter University Dance Competition on 19th February 2020. The event was held in the university's grand auditorium and aimed to provide a platform for students from various universities to showcase their talent and passion for dance.

The competition started with an electrifying opening ceremony, setting the tone for the event. The auditorium was filled with anticipation and excitement as students and participants from different universities gathered to witness the talent showcase.

"Malhar" featured solo and group dance performances, each reflecting the unique styles and diversity of Indian dance forms. Participants exhibited their skill, creativity, and dedication, leaving the audience mesmerized. The competition showcased a vibrant mix of classical, contemporary, folk, and fusion dance performances, highlighting the richness of Indian culture.

Eminent judges, with a background in dance and performing arts, assessed the performances. Their expertise and valuable feedback added a competitive edge to the event, motivating the participants to give their best.

The event was not only about competition but also an opportunity for cultural exchange and interaction. Students from different universities shared their love for dance and forged new friendships, promoting a sense of unity and camaraderie.

The closing ceremony marked the end of an exhilarating day of dance. The Chief Guest and other dignitaries acknowledged and appreciated the efforts of all the participants. Awards were presented to the outstanding performers, acknowledging their exceptional talent and contributions to the competition.

In conclusion, "Malhar: Inter University Dance Competition" organized by the Cultural Club - Rock On at Invertis University Bareilly during the academic year 2019-20 was a resounding success. It not only celebrated the art of dance but also promoted cultural integration and collaboration among universities.The success of "Malhar" affirmed the significance of such cultural events in fostering creativity and talent in the academic environment.
