

Invertis University set the stage on fire with an electrifying display of talent at the "Street Dance" event. Presented by The Cultural Club - Rock On, the program took place on February 20, 2020, at the vibrant crossroad near Academic Block 1. Street Dance aimed to showcase the university's students' skill and passion for dance.

Under the efficient coordination of Ms. Ashal Ilyas, the event was meticulously planned and executed. The organizing committee ensured a seamless experience for both participants and the audience.

The bustling crossroad near Academic Block 1 provided an energetic and dynamic atmosphere for the Street Dance event. Students from different departments enthusiastically participated, bringing their unique styles and moves to the stage.

The event showcased various street dance styles, including hip-hop, breakdance, and freestyle, adding to the diversity and excitement of the performances.

The success of the event was a testament to the dedication and hard work of the Cultural Club - Rock On and the support of the university community. The Street Dance event brought the campus alive with energy and enthusiasm, leaving a lasting impact on all those who witnessed the electrifying performances.

Overall, the Street Dance event at Invertis University celebrated the creativity and talent of the students, highlighting the university's commitment to nurturing cultural expression and providing a platform for artistic exploration.
