

Name of the University: Invertis University, Bareilly Academic year: 2018-19 Report

Name of the Program: Orientation Day

Date: 5 August 2018

Description:

Venue: Auditorium, Invertis University

At the beginning of each academic year, Invertis University hosts Orientation Day. Numerous activities are held on this day to orient and greet incoming students. The purpose and vision statements of the university include initiatives to advance certain ideals.

In order to increase new students' comprehension of academic and ethical behavior while attending university, orientation sessions are offered every academic year. Academic directors and administrators provide orientation to new students on various academic and moral behavior.

The orientation began at 9:40 AM by the compere Dr. Rubina Verma. Sarasvati Vandana and the lamp-lighting ceremony commenced the programme. The welcome speech to the newly admitted students was delivered by the honorable vice chancellor. The Patron of Invertis University spoke to the audience and encouraged them:

It was followed by the addresses of Registrar, Dean Engineering, Dean Management, Discipline in charge, Dean Student Welfare and Abhiruchi CEOs. The dignitaries enlightened students of their role and responsibilities and moreover ensured the students of their full support and encouragement.

Additionally, the occasion was concluded by the Hon'ble Chancellor Sir's closing remarks and the Registrar's administration of the oath ceremony.

Objectives:

- To narrow the communication gap between faculty and students.
- To educate the students about the university's culture and its code of conduct.
- To familiarize them with the university's terminology.
- To teach the students how to identify their career objectives and how to plan for them.
- To encourage students to develop their talents and educate them on numerous cutting-edge approaches to advance their careers.

Feedback:

- The presented sessions enabled students get acquainted with the dignitaries, faculty members, and facility leaders so they can contact the corresponding person in case of any aid and support.
- The total information given was a fantastic insight, making it well worth attending for the students.
