

B.Com. (Hons.): Semester-III
AECC
BCM383: NGO PROJECT

Teaching Scheme	Examination Scheme
Lectures: 0 hrs/Week	Class Test – N/A
Tutorials: 0 hr/Week	Teachers Assessment – N/A
Credits: 2	Attendance – N/A
	End Semester Exam – 50 Marks

Course Objective

Students shall undertake 1 month project training with any registered NGO across the country during summer break, at the end of the second semester. A project report in the prescribed format shall be submitted in the beginning of the third semester. Assessment will be based on evaluation of report. The project carries two credits that will be included in the third semester Marks card.

Tentative Tenure: 15th June – 15th July

Evaluation: 50 marks, which will be converted into 2 credits

Course Learning Outcomes

- To sensitize students towards social responsibilities.
- To provide a practical interface, in extending service to the society.

Head
Department of Commerce

Registrar
Invertis University
Bareilly

Head
Department of Commerce
Invertis University
Bareilly