The Civil Engineering Department host captivating Dance and Singing Competition named "Buzzed On Strings" on 10th May 2021. The Auditorium was chosen as the venue for the evening, providing ample space to accommodate the students, faculty, and guests. The hall was adorned with tasteful decorations, incorporating elements that highlighted the essence of civil engineering and its connection with creativity and innovation.

Mr. Shraavan Kishore Gupta took on the responsibility of coordinating the event. Under his guidance, the organizing committee worked diligently to ensure a seamless and enjoyable experience for everyone involved.

The cultural events segment was the highlight of the evening, with a plethora of performances showcasing the talents of the Civil Engineering students.

The musical performances stole the hearts of the audience as they showcased the versatility of various string instruments like guitars, violins, and cellos. The performers skillfully merged classical tunes with modern beats, leaving the audience in awe of their talent and passion.

The dance performances were equally mesmerizing, with a blend of traditional and contemporary styles. The choreography was impeccable, and the energy exuded by the dancers was contagious, captivating the audience and leaving them spellbound.

As engineering students, showcasing their technical skills was an integral part of the event. A segment dedicated to showcasing innovative projects and prototypes created by the students was organized. This not only highlighted their technical prowess but also inspired others to embrace creativity in their engineering pursuits.

To engage the Participants and create a sense of camaraderie among the students, fun interactive games were arranged. These games not only fostered team spirit but also broke the ice between the new students and their seniors.

The event also featured inspirational speeches from faculty members, motivating the Participants to embark on their academic journey with enthusiasm and dedication.
