Invertis University Hosts "Buzzed on Strings"

Invertis University organized an enthralling "Buzzed on Strings," on 10th May 2021, at the Auditorium. The event was designed to extend a warm welcome to the students, acquainting them with the dynamic and diverse culture of the department.

"Buzzed on Strings" was a captivating affair, featuring cultural events that showcased the talents of the students and fostered a sense of camaraderie among the attendees. The program aimed to inspire the new students to explore the exciting world of civil engineering and the multitude of opportunities it offers.

The Civil Engineering Department continues to nurture innovation, knowledge, and teamwork among its students, ensuring they embark on a promising journey in the field of civil engineering.
