Report on Student Grievance Redressal Committee Activity Organized by Invertis University

Date: 24th August 2021

Host: Prof. J.N. Shrivastava

Venue: Invertis University, [auditorium]

1. Introduction: On 24th August 2021, Invertis University organized an activity focused on the Student Grievance Redressal Committee. The event was hosted by Prof. J.N. Shrivastava, who played a vital role in ensuring effective grievance resolution and maintaining a healthy learning environment for the students.
2. Objective: The main objective of the activity was to familiarize the students with the Student Grievance Redressal Committee and its role in resolving grievances, creating awareness about the committee's functioning, and providing a platform for students to voice their concerns.
3. Event Highlights: 3.1 Welcome and Introduction: Prof. J.N. Shrivastava commenced the activity by warmly welcoming the students, faculty members, and committee representatives. He emphasized the importance of an effective grievance redressal system in an educational institution and the commitment of Invertis University towards providing a supportive environment for its students.

3.2 Overview of the Student Grievance Redressal Committee: Prof. Shrivastava provided a detailed overview of the Student Grievance Redressal Committee's structure, composition, and responsibilities. He explained that the committee serves as a platform for students to address various issues, including academic concerns, discrimination, harassment, and infrastructural problems. He highlighted the committee's impartiality and assured the students of confidentiality while dealing with grievances.

3.3 Interactive Session: The activity included an interactive session where students had the opportunity to ask questions and seek clarifications about the functioning of the committee. Prof. Shrivastava patiently addressed each query, providing comprehensive answers and encouraging open dialogue among the attendees.

3.4 Student Feedback and Suggestions: The event concluded with an open forum for students to share their feedback, suggestions, and concerns related to the grievance redressal system. Prof. Shrivastava actively listened to each participant, ensuring their opinions were valued and acknowledged. This session encouraged constructive discussions and provided valuable insights for further improvement of the committee's functioning.

4. Conclusion: The activity organized by Invertis University for the Student Grievance Redressal Committee, hosted by Prof. J.N. Shrivastava, proved to be an informative and engaging event. It successfully created awareness among students about the committee's role, functions, and procedures for addressing grievances. The interactive session and role-playing exercises facilitated a deeper understanding of the grievance redressal process and equipped students with valuable problem-solving skills.
