Invertis University's Diwali Night Illuminates Campus with Joy and Festivity

Bareilly, November 24, 2021 - Invertis University celebrated Diwali Night in a grand manner on the 24th of November, 2021, at the main lawn of the university campus. The campus was adorned with captivating lights, showcasing artistic displays, and the Panache Art Club crafted a stunning swastika rangoli decorated with flowers and divas. Fairy lights and earthen lamps illuminated the lawn, symbolically dispelling darkness and evil.

The event commenced at 6:30 pm with a warm welcome to all dignitaries by student emcees. The Honorable Chancellor, Vice Chancellor, and Deans of Invertis University inaugurated the event by lighting candles around the sacred deity of Sarasvati. The cultural program began with a mesmerizing classical dance performance by talented students, earning a standing ovation from the enthralled audience.

The celebration continued with a lively DJ night, creating an atmosphere of joy and merriment that lasted for hours.
