Respected All ,

Greetings !

With due respect it is humbly requested of you to kindly inform all the faculties of your respective departments that on precautionary grounds avoid engaging girl students for attending or escorting male guests who visit our university campus for lectures or other purposes.

They may engage boy students for this work especially for the responsibilities of the guest house in their presence.

Thanks and warm regards.

Shalini Anand.

GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL MECHANISM FOR STUDENTS

(A) STUDENTS GRIEVANCES OTHER THAN THOSE PERTAINING TO HOSTELS AND EVALUATION

- Individual Grievances

1. Every class shall have teachers appointed as Class In-charge to look after the problems of students. The complaint of a student will first be referred to the Class In-charge in the Department. The Class In-charge shall after looking into the complaint, dispose it off at his level.
2. A student not satisfied with the solution suggested by the Class In-charge may approach the Head of the Department who will give his decision within a period of 2 weeks.
3. A student not satisfied even with the decision of the Department's Head may appeal to the Committee consisting of Dean Students Welfare and two other persons nominated by the Vice-Chancellor from within the University. This Committee shall be Standing Committee for each Department.
4. The decision of the Standing Committee shall be final.

- Group Grievances

1. If several students together lodge a complaint with Department's Head, efforts will be made to resolve the problem within the Department.
2. A group of students not satisfied with the decision of the Department's Head, may approach the Standing Committee as mentioned above.
3. The Committee should resolve the Department level issues in consultation with the head and senior faculty of the University/Department.
4. The Committee shall formulate its own rules of functioning and procedures.
5. The term of the Committee shall be two years.
6. The decision of the Committee shall be final and binding.

- Miscellaneous Grievances

1. Library : Any grievance about the functioning of the Library should be brought to the notice of the Librarian. Students dissatisfied with his decision may refer the matter to the Dean Students Welfare.
2. Finance: Any grievance about the working of the account section should be brought to the notice of the Finance Officer. Students dissatisfied with his decision may appeal to the Dean Students Welfare.
3. Sports : Any grievance about the sports activities should be brought to the notice of the Sports In-charge. Students dissatisfied with his decision may appeal to the Dean of Students Welfare.

(B) GRIEVANCE-REDRESSAL MECHANISM IN HOSTELS

- Hostel in the University exist to provide conditions of congenial living to the students, within the constraints of resources and personnel. Routine matters pertaining to the provision of facilities for the day-to-day running of the hostel, should be attended by the existing hostel authorities. Redressal of grievances through the proposed special mechanism should be viewed as a last resort.
- Any grievance from a resident student or students in the first instance be referred to the concerned Warden who will depending upon the nature of the grievance, ensure that it is processed by him/her as speedily as possible and in no case later than a fortnight from the date of its receipt.
- In case the resident student or students are not satisfied with the action taken by the Warden, the student or students, as the case may be, are free to bring the grievance in writing to the notice of the Director Administration as soon as the decision of the Warden has been notified and in no case later than two weeks from the date of decision of the Warden.
- The complaint will be made to the Officer In-charge of the Hostel for transmission to the Director Administration who will ensure that the grievance is looked into by him as speedily as possible depending upon its nature and in any case within a fortnight from the date the complaint was lodged.
- In case the resident student or students are not satisfied with the action taken by the hostel authorities he/she may appeal in writing to the Grievance Committee of the Hostel which shall consist of:
 1. Dean of Students' Welfare;
 2. Two teachers nominated by the Vice-Chancellor preferably from amongst persons having adequate experience in hostel administration.
- The Grievance Committee shall ensure that the grievances referred to it are processed as speedily as possible and in no case later than 14 days from the date the complaint is lodged in writing.
- The decision of the Grievance Committee shall be final.
- The Committee shall formulate its own procedure.
- The term of the Committee shall be two years.
- Questions relating to the structure of the hostel administration, including Rules and Regulations governing the hostel, will be outside the purview of the Grievance Committee.

General Consideration

- Grievances should be submitted to the appropriate body within a reasonable time but not more than two weeks after the event at issue.
- Report on a grievance submitted to a Committee also should be made within a reasonable time, not exceeding two weeks from the submission of a grievance.
- While enquiries concerning redressal are in progress, executive actions taken will remain in force.
- Prevention of grievances is even more important than their redressal, all primary complaints, if not attended to, may later assume the form of grievance and should, therefore, be looked into at the initial stage itself.
- For this purpose, the already existing arrangements like Class In-charge, Head of the Department, Proctorial Board should also be activated to localize and resolve the issues, Redressal of Grievances through the special mechanism should be viewed only as a last resort.
- The students may communicate their grievance, suggestion or complaint related to students welfare to the office of Dean Students Welfare through any of the following mode
 - Email on ID dsw@invertis.org
 - Suggestion/Complaint box available on ERP login of every student
 - Written Application
 - In person
